

It's wonderful to have all the children back!

We are delighted to see everyone; we've had over 98% attendance over the week which is fantastic. Even the wind and rain has failed to dampen the children's spirits although it did test me a couple of times....

We have been very impressed with the way the children have returned to the Schools' routines and the way they are remembering the in-class techniques which are so different from being at home. We will be making sure that rules are followed as there are so many which are vital to keeping us safe at the moment, but we will be building in more relaxed times when the children can renew their friendships and share their lock down experiences. I realise that some of these rules might seem irksome, but hopefully they will not be around for much longer.

I would like to take this opportunity to remind you as parents of your role in keeping transmission as low as possible. It is really important that you practice and model social distancing when you are collecting the children. This is especially the case on the infant playground where parents seem to be bunching very close to each other. Please ensure that only one person collects for each family and that you move off as soon as you have your children.

Despite the lock down, Yr. 6 have been having weekly "careers" talk from professionals who have spoken about what they do and taken questions from the children. These have been a real eye opener and so valuable to the children. Many thanks to Lisa Quinn who organised these talks for us.

Homework, and work for children who are self-isolating, will still be set via teams. Apart from that, staff will not be monitoring the site. If you need to get a message to staff, please email or phone the office.

Please don't forget to pre-order your child/children's lunch for next week.
