Did you know: The World Record for the longest continuous set of swings is 163.35 metres.

English Spag

To help with your main English task, I would recommend doing this task on parenthesis first, as it will give you a clearer idea about what to look for in the main task. Anything you find tricky you can go back and complete after the main task.

English Writing

Today's English task will use the focus of parenthesis and how this can be used (at the right time) to add detail to your work.
